DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4, 55-59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Regarding claims 1, 2, 4, 55; the limitation of "said data transfer unit transfers the plurality of first image data packet and the plurality of second image data packets to one of said plural image processing units based on an identification information for identifying one of said plural image processing units added to the second image data packets, and one of said plural image processing units performs image processing on the first image data packets and the second image data packets which are transferred by the data transfer units based in the identification information" working with other claimed limitations as a whole, are subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Regarding claims 56-59: the limitation of "said data transfer unit transfers the plurality of first image data packet and the plurality of second image data packets to one of said plural image processing units based on an identification information for identifying one of said plural image processing units added to the second image data packets, and one of said plural image processing units performs image processing on the first image data packets and the second image data packets which are transferred by the data transfer units based in the identification information" working with other claimed limitations as a whole, are subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4, 55-59 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are claiming: first image processing unit generating plurality of first image data packets; second image processing unit generating plurality of second image data packets by processing the first image data packets; third image processing unit generating image data from second image data packets; wherein said data transfer unit transfers the plurality of first image data packets and the plurality of second image data packets to one of said plural image processing units based on an identification information for identifying one of said plural image processing units added to the second image data packets, and one of said plural image processing units performs image processing on the first image data packets and the second image data packets which are transferred by the data transfer units based in the identification information.

It is unclear: 1) the first image data packets are created and transferred before second image data is created; how is it possible the transfer of the first data packet is based on identification added to the second data packet; 2) it is unclear whether the first image data packet is processed by the second image processing unit and the second image data packet is processed by the third image processing unit, or the first AND the second image data packet are processed by one and just one of the three image processing unit. How is it possible for the first and the second image data packets to be processed by two image processing units and also not by two image processing units but by one image processing unit ? Applicant is required to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2, 4, 55-59 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

The examiner has searched the invention as claimed; and does not locate any prior art to be used in a prior art rejection.

Art Unit: 2625

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
